

Are you interested in riding a bus to NATaT?

The federal spotlight will be on Michigan as township officials converge in Washington, DC to show their statewide pride and take part in the “Featured State” festivities at the National Association of Towns and Townships (NATaT) Annual Legislative Conference September 8-11, 2009.

Interested in attending the conference but not quite sure how you’ll travel to Washington, DC? If you would like to ride an MTA-provided charter bus, please contact MTA’s Administrative Assistant Debbie Shue at debbie@michigantownships.org or fax or mail the bottom portion of this form no later than June 30. A determination as to whether there is sufficient interest to fill a bus will be made July 1st. Once a determination is made, then a notice will be sent to all interested parties.

Cost: Approximately $130 - $150 (depending on the number of passengers)

Bus may be scheduled to leave Lansing, MI early on Tuesday morning, September 8, and return to Lansing the evening of Friday, September 11.

If not responding by e-mail, return the bottom of this form to MTA at: Fax (517) 321-8908, or mail to: PO Box 80078, Lansing, MI 48908.

Yes, I am interested in riding a chartered bus to the NATaT Conference.

Please Print

Name: _____

Township: _____ County: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

E-mail: _____ Ph: _____

Fax: _____